Commitment to Quality

The Virginia Commonwealth University, Office of Continuing Professional Development and Evaluation Studies (CPDE), recognizes that physicians are lifelong learners who have chosen to engage in continuing medical education, to identify or fill gaps in knowledge, skills, or performance. CPDE recognizes that physician learners have the right to expect their continuing medical education experience with the Office of Continuing Professional Development and Evaluation Studies to include:

- Content that:
 - promotes improvements or quality in healthcare;
 - is valid, reliable, and accurate;
 - offers balanced presentations that are free of commercial bias for or against a product/service;
 - is vetted through a process that resolves any conflicts of interests of planners, teachers, or authors;
 - is driven and based on learning needs, not commercial interests;
 - addresses the stated objectives or purposes; and
 - is evaluated for its effectiveness in meeting the identified educational need.

- A learning environment that:
 - supports learners' ability to meet their individual needs;
 - respects and attends to any special needs of the learners;
 - respects the diversity of groups of learners; and
 - is free of promotional, commercial, and/or sales activities.

- Disclosure of:
 - Relevant financial relationships planners, teachers, and authors have with commercial interests related to the content of the activity; and
 - commercial support (funding or in-kind resources) of the activity.
