Dear Carol:

It is our pleasure to congratulate the Virginia Commonwealth University/Medical College of Virginia, Women in Medicine Program on receiving AAMC's 2000 Women in Medicine Leadership Development Award. Your organization clearly has distinguished itself with its institutional commitment to helping women realize their potential and to improving the environment for women in academic medicine.

At AAMC's annual Women Liaison Officers and Academic Chairs' Dinner and Caucus (Sunday, October 29, 6:30 - 9:00pm), the VCU/MCV Women in Medicine Program will be awarded a plaque and a certificate for free tuition for an VCU/MCV colleague to attend an AAMC WIM seminar.

We look forward to your continuing contributions to developing women leaders in medicine.

Sincerely,
